

The Crier

Volume 2, Issue 6

May/June 2014

The Power of Rhythm and Timing

Life is all about timing and sequencing! If you struggle with rhythm it can affect your speech, language, social and play skills.

Attend "The Power of Rhythm and Timing" workshop to understand how to encourage learning through rhythm. Your teacher, Jen Hoeger, is a speech/language pathologist at the Virginia Gay Hospital.

She has been a speech therapist for over 16 years. She treats people age 2-102. She specializes in pediatric development and enjoys learning about cutting edge therapy techniques to best serve her clients.

Meets CDA competency: To promote Physical and Intellectual Development
This session takes place

Wednesday, May 7, 2014
from 6:30 p.m. — 8:30 p.m. at the Kirkwood Vinton Center, 111 West Third Street, Vinton, Iowa.

To register for this class contact Kirkwood at 319/472-2318.

Maximum enrollment for this class is 25.

Building Relationships Through Emotional Intelligence

What skills are the best predictors of life success? Through social and emotional learning, an individual's emotional intelligence (EQ) is bolstered, giving that person enormous edge in her personal and professional futures.

What is the current thinking about children and EQ? Let's look at EQ, what your score is and how you can increase your EQ.

Join us as we discover your EQ! You can use this information with your co-workers, your parents and your children. With Lauri Hughes, Nursing Department Coordinator, Kirkwood Community College MBA, University of Iowa.

Meets CDA competency: Strategies to establish relationships with families.

This session will take place on Thursday, June 10, 2014, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Traer Public Library, 531 Second Street, Traer, 319/478-2180.

To register for this class contact Kirkwood at 319/472-2318.

Maximum enrollment for this class is 25.
